Jeremy's Thanksgiving

Dad cleaned his hands. He followed Grandpa and Jeremy to the backyard. They spent an hour playing football.

Mom told them it was time for dinner. They all went inside. They washed their hands. Soon, they were all sitting at the table. Mom and Grandma had set the table. It was beautiful!

Mom said the blessing. Then it was time to eat! Jeremy had a scoop of everything. Sweet potatoes, squash, carrots, green beans, and cranberry sauce. Jeremy took a big slice of turkey. He poured gravy on it. Jeremy left room for Grandma's cornbread. It was his favorite. He couldn't fit anything else on his plate. Everything smelled delicious. Everyone was really liking the food.

Jeremy looked around the table. His mother said Thanksgiving was about being thankful. Jeremy felt very thankful. He loved his family so much. He felt lucky.
