What does this photo make you think of? How does it make you feel?

This photo reminds me of all of the soldiers who commit their lives to our country by serving. Many of them leave their family and friends for periods of time to serve. Some have sacrificed risked their lives in wars. This photo ... grateful and proud of ...

Veterans Day

Veterans Day is a United States holiday that is observed each year on November 11th.

Veterans Day honors military veterans, who are people who served in the U.S. Armed Forces.

The U.S. Armed Forces include the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Air Force, and Coast Guard.

Some people confuse Veterans Day and Memorial Day. Veterans Day celebrates the service of all military veterans, while Memorial Day celebrates those who died while serving.

Veterans Day originated from Armistice Day, which celebrates soldiers who died in World War I. In 1945, World War II veteran Raymond Weeks suggested the holiday be expanded to celebrate all veterans.

President Dwight Eisenhower supported Week's idea and signed a law declaring Veterans Day an official holiday. Weeks is now known as the "Father of Veterans Day".

To celebrate, many workers and children have Veterans Day off from work and school.

To honor veterans on this special day, you can:

1. Thank a veteran for their service.
2. Attend a parade or event that celebrates veterans.
3. Hang a flag at your home.
4. Teach someone the meaning of veterans day.
5. Write a letter to a veteran to thank them for their service.
6. Pay respects to a veteran who has passed by visiting a gravesite.
7. Volunteer at a shelter for homeless veterans.

Honoring Vete ns

ow will you honor veteran this Veterans Day?

This Veterans Day I plan to show my appreciation for veterans who have fought for our freedom. I will honor veterans by writing a letter to thank my uncle, who fought in the Korean War. Then, I will take him to th Veterans Day Parade to further show my appreciation. I also plan to teach my little brother the meaning of Veterans Day.

Dear

er

Thank for yo Service to America. You are very brave. Because of your sacrifice, we are free and have peace. I cherish the freedom and democracy our country has. You are a true hero. On Veterans day I will be honoring and thinking about you and your fellow armed service members. Happy Veterans Day!
