Little Skunk

Little Skunk woke up. He rubbed his eyes. His tummy made a noise. He was hungry.

Little Skunk climbed out of his den. He looked around the forest. He saw a berry bush. Little Skunk ate the sweet, juicy berries.

Crunch! Crack! Little Skunk heard something. It sounded like something big. It was coming near him.

Little Skunk was scared! He lifted his tail. He let out a stinky spray.

"Hey!" said a voice. It was his friend Baby Bear. "That stinks!" said Baby Bear.

"I'm sorry," said Little Skunk. "You scared me."

On the Trail

Tracker is sleeping on the porch. He is dreaming of chasing bunnies. Tracker is a bloodhound who can follow any trail.

A new smell drifts to Tracker's nose. It is sweet. His mouth starts to water. He wakes up. Tracker follows the smell to the back door.

He sees Mrs. Jackson in the kitchen. He watches her open the oven. He sees her pull out a tray of cookies. He wags his tail.

Tracker wants some cookies. The door is closed. His ears droop. How can he get some cookies?

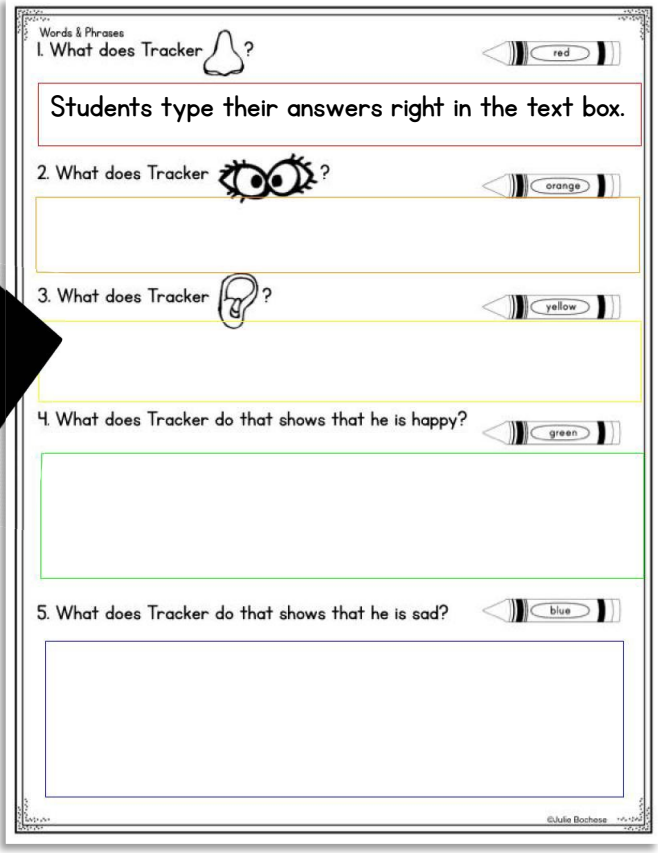

Just then, Tracker hears something. It is the garage door. Mr. Jackson is coming home!

Tracker runs to the front of the house. He goes into the garage. Mr. Jackson opens the door to the kitchen. Tracker runs inside.

"No cookies for you, Tracker," says Mrs. Jackson. "Here is a dog treat."

ABOUT LEXILE LEVELS

MagiCore Learning, LLC is a certified Lexile® Partner. These texts are officially measured and approved by Lexile and MetaMetrics® to ensure appropriate rigor and differentiation for students.

The Lexile Framework® for Reading measures are scientific, quantitative text levels. When the Lexile of a text is measured, specific, measurable attributes of the text are considered, including, but not limited to, word frequency, sentence length, and text cohesion. These are difficult attributes for humans to evaluate, so a computer measures them.

Common Core State Standards uses Lexile level bands as one measure of text complexity. Text complexity ranges ensure that students are college and career ready by the end of 12th grade. Lexile measures help educators scaffold and differentiate instruction, as well as monitor reading growth.

Grade Band	Lexile® Bands Aligned to Common Core Expectations
K-1	190L-530L
2-3	420L-820L
4-5	740L-1,010L
6-8	1,185L-1,385L

Keep in mind when using any leveled text that many students will need scaffolding and support to reach text at the high end of their grade band. According to Appendix A of the Common Core Standards, "It is important to recognize that scaffolding often is entirely appropriate. The expectation that scaffolding will occur with particularly challenging texts is built into the Standards' grade-by-grade text complexity expectations, for example. The general movement, however, should be toward decreasing scaffolding and increasing independence both within and across the text complexity bands defined in the Standards."

Ice Cream Truck

Jingle, jangle!
Jingle, jangle!
Here comes the ice cream truck!
When children hear the happy tune,
They know that it will be coming soon.
Jingle, jangle!
Jingle, jangle!
Count your nickels and your dimes!
Wait by the curb; look down the street.
Dream about that cold, sweet treat.
Drip, drop!
Drip, drop!
Your cone is melting in the hot sun.
With ice cream on your hands and face,
Nothing can beat that chocolatey taste.
Jingle, jangle!
Jingle, jangle!
Thank you, ice cream truck!

TEST: Finders Keepers

Beep! Beep! Beep!

The store alarm rang loudly. Sarah's mom went back to the register. They checked the items that she had bought.

Once again, Sarah and her mom walked to the door.

Beep! Beep! Beep!

Sarah felt her face getting hot. Her palms felt sweaty.

"I don't know what the problem could be," Sarah's mom said.

A security guard came over. He asked Sarah to walk to the door by herself.

Tears welled up in Sarah's eyes. She walked to the door.

Beep! Beep! Beep!

Sarah saw the surprise on her mom's face.

"I found this watch in the bathroom," Sarah said. She pulled up her sleeve to show the watch. "It didn't have a tag or anything. I thought that I could keep it," she said.

Sarah was telling the truth, but she knew that she was wrong. The security guard took the watch. He gave Sarah and her mom a warning.

"No more finders keepers for me!" said Sarah.

Tryouts

Who wants to play soccer? Daisy, Maki, and Tony want to play!

They have to try out for the team.

"I can't wait for tryouts," says Daisy.

"Yuck! I don't like tryouts," says Maki.

"What if I don't make the team?" asks Tony.

The kids go to soccer tryouts. They run around. They kick the ball.

"That was a blast!" says Daisy.

"Why can't we just play a game?" asks Maki.

"I think I messed up," says Tony.

Soccer tryouts come to an end. The kids go home.

"That was fun," says Daisy.

"I'm glad it's over," says Maki.

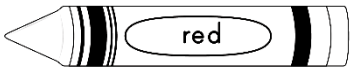

"I don't think I made the team," says Tony.

The coach calls. All three kids made the soccer team!
