- Who are the characters?
- What is the setting?
- What happened in the beginning, middle, and end?
- What was the problem?
- What lesson did the main character learn?
- How did this lesson change the main character?

RECOUNTING STORIES

We learned about three types of traditional literature. Match the definitions and examples that describe fables, folktales, and myths.

Traditional Literature	Definition	Example
FABLES	A short story, usually with animals as main characters, that teachers a moral.
FOLKTALES	A story that was passed down orally, that typically teaches a lesson.
MYTHS	A story about the early history of people or explaining a natural or social phenomenon.
