Read and Comprehend Informational Text

Good readers:

1. Read the whole text through.
2. Ask yourself: "What was this text about?"
3. If you know what the text was about, you are ready to answer the questions. If you have trouble summarizing the text, you need to reread until you comprehend.
4. Read each question. Circle and underline key words.
5. Search for the answer or text evidence that supports the answer. Underline it in the text.
6. Check your work!
