

4th & 5th Grade

Integrating Information

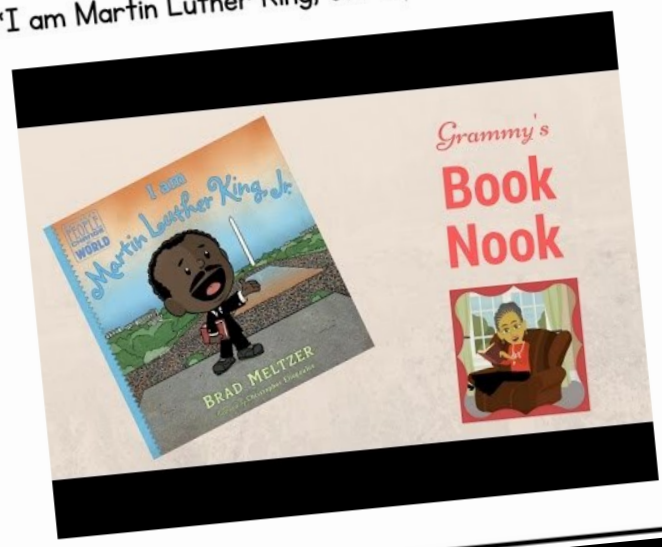

DIGITAL Mini lessons

MagiCORE

To INTEGRATE INFORMATION from multiple texts, follow the steps:
1 First, read each article, and determine the most important points the author makes. (To determine the main points in an article, determine the main idea of each paragraph.)
2 Next, determine which points in the articles are similar and can be combined and which points are different and should be noted.
3 Then, integrate, or combine the important points to summarize the topic.

Let's Listen!

Listen to the book "I am Martin Luther King, Jr." by Brad Meltzer.

Let's Listen!

Listen to the book "My Brother Martin" by Christine King Farris.

Let's Try!

Using the information from the other slides, fill in the entire chart.

Martin's Big Words:	I am Martin Luther King, Jr:	My Brother Martin:
1.	1.	1. Martin Luther King Jr had an older sister and a younger brother. They played together and had many adventures. Their grandmother watched them a lot because their parents worked.
2. In 1955 Rosa Parks was arrested. This sparked a protest in Martin's city where people refused to ride the buses and walked everywhere for 381 days.	2. When Martin Luther King Jr. was 6 years old one of his best friends was white, his father owned a store across the street. After Martin started school at a black school and his friends started at a white school, Martin's friend said they couldn't play together anymore.	2.
3.	3. Rosa Parks was arrested, the next more Martin and a community leader decided to start a bus boycott so that without their money the bus companies would go out of business.	3. Their house was across the street from a store owned by a white family with 2 boys who they played with all the time. One day they went to get their friends to play and the boys said they couldn't play with them because they were negroes.
4.	4.	4.
5. In 1964 Martin Luther King Jr won the Nobel Peace Prize.	5.	5.