Making Connections in Literature
Chapters, scenes, and stanzas work together to create the overall structure of a story, drama, or poem. It is important to understand how chapters, scenes, and stanzas connect with one another.
Drag each chapter title to create a logical sequence of events.

Let's Read!

Read the short fable "The Dog and the Shadow" by Aesop.

What happens in the beginning, middle, and end?

A Dog, to whom the butcher had thrown a bone, was hurrying home with his prize as fast as he could go. As he crossed a narrow footbridge, he happened to look down and saw himself reflected in the quiet water as if in a mirror. But the greedy Dog thought he saw a real Dog carrying a bone much bigger than his own.

If he had stopped to think he would have known better. But instead of thinking, he dropped his bone and sprang at the Dog in the river, only to find himself swimming for dear life to reach the shore. At last he managed to scramble out, and as he stood sadly thinking about the good bone he had lost, he realized what a stupid Dog he had been.

Let's Listen!

Listen to the story Jabari Jumps by Gaia Cornwall.

Let's Try!
Think about a time in your life that relates to how Jabari felt in the story.
Create a poem with rhyme that describes your experience.
